

General Health and Safety Policy Statement

It is the general policy of the Amor Group to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the health, safety and welfare of our employees and provide a safe and healthy workplace.

Further to this, we are committed to the following objectives:

- to assess and provide adequate control of the health and safety risks arising from our work activities;
- to consult with our employees on matters affecting their health and safety;
- to provide and maintain safe equipment;
- to ensure safe handling and use of substances;
- to provide Health and Safety related information, instruction and supervision for our employees;
- to ensure all employees are competent to do their Health and Safety related tasks, and to give them adequate Health and Safety training;
- to prevent accidents and cases of work-related ill health;
- to maintain safe and healthy working conditions; and,
- to review and revise this policy annually, or when necessary.

It is the duty of management to ensure that everything reasonably practicable is done to prevent personal injury in all our activities, and to maintain a safe and healthy place of work for our employees, and anyone who will be present on our premises.

It is the duty of all employees to cooperate with the company, act responsibly, and to do everything they can to prevent injury to themselves, colleagues and others through their acts and omissions. Whilst implementation of policy is a management responsibility, it will rely heavily on the cooperation of all our employees.

The Chief Executive Officer has the overall and final responsibility for health and safety, whose commitment to its achievement is indicated by the signing of this Policy Statement below.

Chief Executive Officer
